Coffee Gives Bonds Good Big Majority

POLL TAX AMENDMENT IS ALSO CARRIED; UNOFFICIAL RE-TURNS INDICATE 'ROUND
1000 MAJORITY FOR
BOND ISSUE

Although complete returns have not been received from Mondays election throughout the county, present indications are that the bond issue has carried by about one thousand majority in the county.

So far as the Clipper was able to ascertain only about ten or twelve boxes have voted majorities against the bonds. The twenty boxes that we have received the returns from give the bonds a majority of more than one thousand; however, it is known that some of the other ten boxes will give majorities against the measure.

The vote throughout the county was very light, except at the three towns—Elba, Enterprise and New Brockton. At these places the turnout was fair. The soldiers poll tax exemption amendment has been carried by a large majority than the bond amendment.

The unofficial returns from the state indicate that the measure has been carried in every county except one. Geneva is reported to have voted against the measure.

The official count will be made by day, and the Clipper next week will publish the correct figures. Following is the unofficial returns that have been gathered:

BODY OF SIX YOUTH IS FOUND IN TENNESSEE RIVER MON. DAY

Florence, Ala., Jan. 30.—The body of Carl Six, seventeen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Six, who mysteriously disappeared on December 29th, was found Saturday morning in the Tennessee at Georgetown, Ala., 15 miles from Florence, floating on an accumulation of driftwood. The boy fell into the river at Patton Island as he was in the act of getting into a flat boat loaded with wood. Many unsuccessful efforts were made to recover the body which led to the belief that he had not been drowned but had probably run away from home.

MEXICAN OFFICIALS SAY NO CONFLICT WITH GUATEMALA

Mexico City, Jan. 28.—By The Associated Press.—Rumors of war between Mexico and Guatemala are described by a high Mexican official as "too ridiculous to deny." Semi-official sources were positive in denying the reports.

Luis Caballero, Mexican minister to Guatemala, requested a leave of absence several months ago, and it is stated that if he decides to return to Mexico at this time, it will be for that reason and not because of any strained relations between the two countries.

Neither President Obregon nor Gen. Francisco Zerrano, acting minister of war, could be reached Friday night for an official government statement on the rumors.

Mr. L. B. Clark, of Enterprise, was here the first of the week on business.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC COAST IS SWEEPED BY HEAVY BLIZZARD

Washington, Jan. 28.—More than 24 hours of continuous snow had tonight covered the middle Atlantic section with Washington as a center, to a depth of a foot to nearly 30 inches; caused the suspension of practically all business and social activity; disrupted transportation and shut most of the population in their homes.

The storm, which weather bureau officials after looking up their records said was one of the most severe in history and exceeded in the depth of snow fall only by the long remembered blizzard of February, 1899, was moving slowly tonight up the coast from its position during the day off Virginia.

Reports to the weather bureau showed that the Carolinas, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia were having the heaviest snowfall. Virginia cities accepted to only an inch or two or snow and then of rare occurrence, were buried in many cases to the depth of a foot while northern portions of the Carolinas still were blanketed with a fall that began Thursday.

Washington, however, appeared to be the center of the heavy fall, the weather bureau measurements taken late in the day showing the depth to be closely approaching two and a half feet, and the record fall of three feet established in 1899. All records for 24 hours fall had been broken at 6 o'clock, the hour at which time the storm struck Washington yesterday.

The national capital with its heavy and constantly increasing blizzard was virtually paralyzed as to activities of all kinds in much the same manner as in 1899 when a heavier fall hit accompanied by rain and sleet forced abandonment of elaborate plans for the inauguration of President Taft.

NEGRO IS TAKEN FROM OFFICER AND SHOT TO DEATH
Pontiac, Miss., Jan. 28.—Will Zell, 20, a negro, charged with an attack on a young white woman near here last night, was taken from officers early to day as he was being transferred to Jackson, Miss., for safe-keeping, and was shot to death by a number of unidentified men who intercepted the officers near town as they were taking the prisoner to a train.

Sheriff Blalock, fearing the negro would be lynched, arranged with the conductor of the Jackson train to stop outside the town for the prisoner, and accompanied by a number of deputies, he made a rush for the train in a closed automobile. On the outskirts of Pontiac, another closed car was drawn up across the road blocking traffic. When the sheriff's car stopped, an unidentified man jumped from the blocking automobile, and pulling aside the side curtains of the sheriff's car, emptied his revolver into the body of the negro before the officers could interfere.

The negro fell across the running board and a fusillade of shots from men hidden in the other automobile ended his life. The makers of the ended his life. The members of the mob to identify them or the car they were driving have failed.

MAN LOSES LIQUOR AND BRIDE;
GIVEN ONE DAY SENTENCE
Boston, Jan. 27.—Antonio Silva, arrested at Springfield two weeks ago with six quarts of moonshine that he was bringing to his own wedding and held in jail there since, lost not only his liquor but his bride. When his case came up in the federal court here today on a charge of illegally possessing liquor, Silva pleaded guilty and the court was about to declare sentence when the prosecuting attorney announced that Silva's bride to be had married another man meanwhile. Judge Peters said Silva had apparently suffered almost enough and declared the sentence to be one more day in jail.

GERMAN GOVERNMENT ASKING RELIEF FROM PAYMENTS THIS YEAR

Berlin, Jan. 28.—The German note to the reparations commission in response to the commission's demand for explanations of Germany's alleged inability to meet her obligations for January and February, requests that Germany be relieved of all cash payments in 1922. It also asks for a general reduction in cash payments and an increase in payments in kind.

The note suggests that the Allies take measures to restore Germany's internal and external credit, and thereby facilitate the floating of a big international reparation loan. It announces that Germany will raise an internal loan in 1922 independent of the forced loan in order to reduce the floating debt.

It is pointed out in the note that the allied experts at the Brussels conference in 1920 recognized that German direct taxation was incapable of further augmentation, but that indirect taxes were now before the allied states to provide further increase in property tax as well as taxes on capital and corporations. The amount will be increased from one and one-half per cent to two per cent and the coal tax from twenty to forty per cent. The burden on production and consumption will be increased, and in addition, the increased customs dues will be collected on a half basis. The entire burden imposed on consumption, it is asserted, is at least equal to that in other countries.

In explanation of Germany's financial position, the note states that emergency measures will be taken against the removal of capital abroad and the evasion of taxation, such as the abolition of the obligation to secrecy imposed on banks, and control over the ownership of securities deposited with banks. It explains that the railway rates, compared with pre-war conditions, had been increased nineteen fold for passengers and thirty fold for freight; the postal and telephone rates were increased twenty-one fold.

The food subsidies for 1922 will amount to only one billion marks, as compared with 2,250,000,000 previously.

The price of bread will shortly be increased by 75 per cent. A system for insurance of the unemployed at the expense of employers and employees will be introduced, to replace the existing relief system.

The ordinary budget shows, with a revenue of 102,200,000,000 marks, and expenses of 86,700,000,000 mark a surplus of 15,500,000,000 available for reparation payments.

With the object of reducing the floating debt, the government will raise an internal loan this year, apart from the compulsory loan already agreed upon. The compulsory loan will be non-recurring and is intended to finance the reparations due in 1922, without increasing paper circulation.

It is absolutely necessary, if the matter is viewed from an economic standpoint, the note continues that Germany should at least for 1922 be relieved of all cash payments on account of reparations.

MR. J. L. JOHNSON, WELL KNOWN CITIZEN, DEAD

Mr. J. L. Johnson, well known citizen of Beat 15, died on last Sunday morning at the Pike County Masonic Hospital after an illness of several days. Mr. Johnson was suffering from a complication of diseases although the operation was for appendicitis.

He was a progressive farmer and one of the most prominent men in that section of the county. The news of his death will be received with genuine regret all over the county. He is survived by his wife and two or three children, besides a number of other relatives.

The funeral and burial occurred on Monday at Hebron Church. Friends join the Clipper in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

MANY KILLED AND WOUNDED IN BIG THEATRE DISASTER IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Jan. 28.—Official figures recorded early today placed the known dead in the Knickerbocker theatre disaster at 107. Elimination of duplicated names brought the final total down from the unofficial peak of 112 at which the toll of the catastrophe was placed late last night.

The list of injured stood at 134 with 14 listed as "seriously injured." The list, according to the authorities, contained the names of all those whose bodies had been recovered up to midnight from the ruins left when the roof of the theatre, overwhelmed with snow, collapsed on the audience which had braved the Saturday night storm to witness the comedy featured on the evening program. The volunteers, including police, firemen, marines and cavalry from Fort Myer, had practically concluded their search of the wreckage at midnight, the only portion of which had been the orchestra remaining to be searched for a far corner.

The large majority of the victims, both killed and injured, were residents of this city although many came recently from other places. Explorations of the ruins went on unchecked after dark, but those in charge believed few additional bodies would be found. Without regard to their own risk, soldiers, marines, sailors, police, firemen and citizens volunteers had fought their way beneath the wreckage over practically the whole floor space of the auditorium.

The exact number in the theatre when the steel and concrete span of the roof buckled and fell under its three foot load of snow probably will never be known. The stories of perhaps a hundred who got out unharmed have been reported. These accounts for a few more than 300 in the audience that was roaring with laughter at a film comedy when the roof fell on them like a blanket, carrying down the front of the wide balcony in its crash.

Normally the theatre has every seat filled at that hour and nearly 2,000 persons was its capacity. The same day snowed which brought death to the venture some few, left as many at home. Street car traffic had been abandoned and streets and sidewalks were all but impassable with drifts.

There has been no time as yet for official inquiry as to the cause of the disaster. The ruins themselves disclose, however, that the entire mass of steel held concrete that formed the roof had come down. The crash swept the supports out from under the balcony, apparently, and this bludgeoned down at an angle of 45 degrees adding to the tangled mass of wreckage on the floor below.

The building stands in an acute angled corner at 18th street and Columbia road, Northeast, the heart of the most favored residence section of the city. The narrow niche of the stage on which the screen was hung was backed into the corner angle while to the left from the stage, this line of the auditorium wall runs in a straight line for some 200 feet down 18th street. To the right, the wall follows the slow curve of Columbia road for about the same distance and at the far end, paralleling the stage front, the back wall completed the auditorium proper, also about 200 feet in length.

ANDALUSIA FIRE DESTROYS PLANT OF PICKLING CO.

Andalusia, Ala., Jan. 30.—The Andalusia plant of the Price-Booker Manufacturing Company, located 3 miles from town was destroyed by fire Sunday morning, the manufacturing part of the plant being burned to the ground. The pickling vats and sheds were saved, the vats containing a large quantity of pickles.

The fire was discovered shortly after eight o'clock and the Andalusia Fire Department rushed to the scene but they were unable to do but little toward saving the plant as it was in a mass of flames when they reached the scene. They aided in the work of removing the packed goods from the plant and aided in other saving. It is learned the here was a large amount of goods in the shipping room ready for shipment and some of this was saved. Lack of sufficient water prevented fire fighting.

None of the machinery was saved in the plant but the boiler house was saved from the flames.

The amount of the loss could not be ascertained Sunday as J. E. Wright, president was out of the city and the valuation of the plant, equipment and goods on hand could not be estimated. Part of the loss is covered by insurance, but even with this insurance, the loss will probably amount to a big figure. The origin of the fire is unknown. The plant caught in the west end of the building.

The Price-Booker plant has been in operation for several years. They also have plants in Houston and Waco, Texas.

MRS. SUSANNE WILLIAMSON

Mrs. Susanne Williamson, died at her home near Glenwood, at an early hour Friday morning after a brief illness.

She was sixty seven years of age. Mrs. Williamson was survived by one son, C. S. Williamson, and by two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Casey, of Troy, and Mrs. J. P. Blair, of Elba. She is also survived by four brothers and three sisters.

The funeral of Mrs. Williamson occurred at Hopewell cemetery on Saturday morning at ten o'clock, the services being conducted by Elder B. J. Wilson.

Friends will sympathize with the bereaved family in their loss.

OFFICERS IN PEANUT PRODUCTS CORPORATION LOSE SUIT

The stockholders of the Peanut Products Corporation won in a law suit against the officers of the company last week in Judge Green's division of the Circuit Court of Birmingham. The suit for one hundred thousand dollars damages was brought against W. B. Glenn, of Birmingham, and R. O. Fleming, of Enterprise, charging them with conspiracy to wreck the corporation. The case was called on Monday, January 18, and testimony was taken for about ten days, witnesses being summoned from all over the state. The jury was charged last Friday morning and after being out only about ten minutes brought in a verdict for the defendants.

Another case similar to the one above is that of Felix L. Thurnage, president of the Pecanuta Products Corporation, who is suing Glenn and Fleming for seventy-five thousand dollars damages as a result of his arrest and incarceration in jail. This case was called for trial Monday of this week.

800 SKELETONS BURIED FOR AGES, FOUND IN A CAVE

Bristol, Va., Tenn., Jan. 26.—The finding of approximately 800 human skeletons in a cave in the mountains near here was reported by Prof. Henry Woodham of this city. The bones were in a cone-shaped heap about 30 feet high and 80 feet diameter at the base. Prof. Woodham stated, and are thought to be those of Indians. Tomahawks and beads also were found in the cave, which Prof. Woodham thinks was the burial ground of Indians several centuries ago. Archeologists from the several colleges in this section are planning to make a thorough investigation of the cave.

RIDDICK, FAMOUS JAIL BREAK- ER, LEAVES PIKE JAIL. CARRIES TWO MORE

Troy Messenger says: Lawrence Riddick, famous criminal and jail breaker, in jail at Troy for stealing the George Owens car some months ago, escaped from the Pike county jail early Sunday morning, at some hour between 1 and 6 a. m. With Riddick went two hoboes named Baines and Stanley.

Prisoners had tried to escape from the well at a previous time and had pried up a portion of the steel lining beneath a window. This had been repaired and a new piece of steel placed over it. In some way Riddick got or made a hack saw or chisel and thus cut through this place. Brick and cement walls were easy after that.

Deputy Pless Nichols says he walked around the jail twice Saturday night and detected nothing. He said he was up until 1 a. m., with his sick brother, John, who was suffering from rheumatism. He was up until 1 a. m., and made a trip through the jail at that hour, and says the men were in their cell at that time, apparently in slumber.

MR. SESSIONS MAKES FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT FOR REP- RESENTATIVE

To the People of Coffee County: I am a candidate for Representative of Coffee County, and if elected I expect to stand for any and all legislation for the relief of overburdened taxpayers and for the general welfare of the farmers.

I stand for reducing tax burdens by fair and just equalization of taxes.

I favor making big power companies pay their just share of taxes.

I favor abolishing tax adjustments and field agents of the State Tax Commission.

I favor abolishing the Board of Control and Economy.

I favor enforcement of laws by sheriffs, and their impeachment and removal for failure to enforce the law.

I favor abolishing Kilby's Law Enforcement Squad.

I favor cooperative marketing of farm products, and the principles of collective bargaining.

I favor all laws which encourage agriculture and help the farmer to sell for good prices the products of the farm.

I favor building good roads and all laws which will prevent graft and waste of good road funds.

I favor better supervision of public schools, and the election of the County Superintendent of Education by popular vote of the people.

I am opposed to waste and extravagance in every form in the administration of County and State government, and believe every dollar of the people's money paid in taxes should be accounted honestly and economically.

I believe that all officials, State or County, who have the expenditure of public money should be under good and sufficient bonds to the State or County.

We are paying too much in high freight and passenger rates, and I favor all laws, State or National, which will reduce now existing railroad rates, especially on all farm products and fertilizers.

I favor any legal or general law which will save counties large sums of money spent for stationery, office equipment, and supplies, machinery and mules used in road building.

I am opposed to big business interests dictating the policies of the State or County Government, and believe that every public officer should be the servant of the people.

ALL EDITORS ARE LIARS

We overheard a man remarking the other day that the reason he did not take the Manson papers is that all editors are liars. While we know that the reason that he does not take the Manson papers is that he has dead-beat both of them out of several years' subscription, we will admit that he told the truth about all editors being liars. Fact is, we never told the truth about that man. We always lied about him, but we will not lie about him this time. When he got married over 25 years ago we published in this paper that he was an "honest, industrious young man." That was a lie and we knew it. He was a dead-beat before he ever got married and owed for board, room and washing that he did not pay then and has never paid since. He owed for chewing tobacco clothing and anything that he could get trusted for and has never paid the debt. He was not industrious but was notoriously lazy, a hulking lout and brawler who would not work if he could possibly get out of it, and then when forced into work he was a shirk and a sneak, always trying to put the heaviest work on his companions. We said he would make a good home for his wife. That was a lie. He never owned a home of his own, and does not own one now, but he has to pay his rent in advance every month. We said his wife was a "handsome and accomplished young lady." This was several lies. She was homelier than the back end of the buildings that front main street in Manson, Iowa, she had no accomplishments, except to chew gum and talk slang; she was young, but she was not a lady as she had a pretty shabby reputation. When her father died we told another lie, for we said the old man was a prominent and highly respected citizen, when he was a notorious chicken, coal and horse feed thief and every one hated him and would have been glad when he died had it not been for the fact that the county had to bury him. When our hero's daughter got married we said the same nice things about her we said about her mother and lied again, or worse. Yes, its true all newspaper men, especially country newspaper men, are liars.—Manson Democrat.
